

SAFHS Conference 2017

Bay Hotel, Pettycur, Burntisland Road, Kinghorn, Fife
Sat Nav Postcode: KY3 9YE

By Road

From the South. Take the A90 northbound and cross the Forth Bridge to the FerryToll Interchange at Inverkeithing. Either go through the historic town of Inverkeithing and join the A921 at the roundabout north of the town, or exit the A90/M90 at Junction 2 directly onto the A921.

From the North. Take the M90 southbound to Junction 2, and then take the A921

From the West. Make for the M90 either through Dunfermline or through Rosyth.

From Dunfermline go south on the M90 to Junction 2 and then take the A921. From Rosyth continue under the M90 flyover directly on to the A921.

From the South, North or West continue eastwards on the A921, signposted to Aberdour, Burntisland and Kinghorn. After passing through Burntisland, the road follows the coastline, passing the Kingswood Hotel. The Bay Hotel entrance is on the left (joint entrance to Pettycur Bay Complex).

From the East on the A92 or the coast road make for Kirkcaldy, and follow the Esplanade. At the end of the Esplanade (Morrison's Supermarket) turn left and follow the A921 through Kinghorn, and then up the hill above Pettycur Bay. The hotel entrance is on the right about 1 mile west of Kinghorn.

By Rail

Although there are stations at Kinghorn and Burntisland, these are not served by all services. Preferably take the train to Inverkeithing station, which is much better served by East Coast main line and also by the Fife Circle. From Inverkeithing station follow the Public Transport information below.

By Public Transport

The Bay Hotel is served by Stagecoach buses, which operate between Dunfermline and Kirkcaldy, service No 7 [not 7B or 7D]

The buses leave from Inverkeithing Station from where they operate at H+1 and H+31 during the day. The service also operates in the opposite direction from Kirkcaldy Bus Station at H+8 and H+38. Please advise the driver that you wish to alight at Pettycur as it is not a stage stop.

By Air

From Edinburgh Airport take the 747 bus service to FerryToll and Halbeath. This service runs every 20 minutes during the day. Alight at Inverkeithing Railway Station, from which Public Transport (as above) is available.
